'More than six in ten children chose kindness as their word of the year, according to research by OUP (Oxford University Press). Researchers found that the word choice reflected children's awareness of mental health and current affairs'

Our school is bursting with little moments of kindness each and every day. The beauty in witnessing the little acts nourishes us and stokes the passion we have for education.

I have the privilege of responding to the many purple slips that are awarded for to children for their acts of kindness and believe me there are many!

I know that many more happen; moments unseen by others but valued in the hearts of the receiver...

Amazing Authors...

We continued with our quest to inspire our pupils to enjoy reading on Thursday afternoon. Y2-6 attended a virtual author event with writer, Bethany Walker! They learned some top tips for becoming a writer, asked some brilliant questions and got the chance to draw a hamster spaceship inspired by Bethany's book, 'Olly Brown, God of Hamsters'!

Led by the Class Ambassadors, in their class meetings next week, they will be voting for the Bethany Walker book they would most like to read... and why they should be the first to read them!

Look out for their reviews in future news...

Who is feeling proud this week?

Well done Amelia, who was chosen for the Player of the Match last week by the parents!
