Tealby School Values: Courage & Excellence

This week, I had the pleasure of welcoming three Year 1 girls into my office to share their fantastic story writing. Using the Talk 4 Writing approach, they creatively innovated the traditional tale of The Three Little Pigs—and the results were truly excellent!

The girls were beaming with pride as they read their stories aloud, and it was clear just how much effort and imagination they had put into their writing. Their finished pieces showcased not only their growing literacy skills but also their ability to think creatively and work independently.

These young storytellers will soon be sharing their storytelling talents more widely—something we're all looking forward to!

Their hard work and enthusiasm are a wonderful example of our school values in action, especially Courage and Excellence. A big well done to all three of you!

Who is feeling 'PROUD' this week?

Blake won 3rd place in the Young-handlers' class at the Malton show, he's incredibly proud 😊 everyone else in the class was over 10! This is amazing – well done!

Bea won the Grade 1 Star of the Week award at ballet this week – what an achievement!

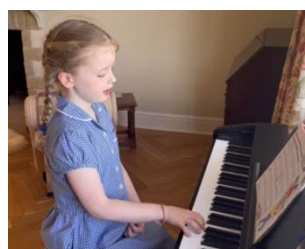

Annie won gold for bars and vault in her gymnastics competition – incredible work, well done!

Another wonderful video has been sent into school for us to enjoy: Florence has been practising 'Harold fought upon a hill'.
