What a Year! Celebrating Success at Tealby School

As we approach the end of an incredible academic year, we are filled with pride reflecting on the breadth and brilliance of opportunities our children have experienced. From exploring local landscapes to engaging with authors, scientists, artists, and musicians, this year has been nothing short of inspirational.

Our pupils have developed confidence, curiosity, and resilience through meaningful and memorable experiences—whether conducting fieldwork at the Water Mill, exploring nature in Forest School, or immersing themselves in science at RAF Cranwell. Events like Young Voices, Mini Olympics, Norfolk Lakes and London Residentials have celebrated teamwork, creativity, and personal growth.

Reading for pleasure has become a central part of our school culture. Visits from authors like Tom Palmer, Bethany Walker, and Lydia Sanders sparked storytelling and imagination, while our 'Book and a Biscuit' event and family reading sessions strengthened home-school connections and inspired a love of books in even our most reluctant readers.

We've deepened our learning across the curriculum—developing swimming skills, enhancing emotional wellbeing through Healthy Minds sessions, and expanding scientific and historical understanding through trips and expert visitors. Our children have also shown leadership in safeguarding, mental health, and community engagement, working with organisations such as the NSPCC and local environmental groups.

Each experience has contributed to our School Development Priorities, ensuring that learning is sticky, relevant, and full of purpose. Whether in the classroom or beyond, our pupils have shown remarkable enthusiasm, compassion, and creativity.

Thank you to our dedicated staff and governors, supportive families, and wider community for making this year so successful. Together, we've created a rich tapestry of learning and lifelong memories for our children.

Here's to an even brighter year ahead!

Inspirational Assembly and Book-signing with Luke Staton.

We were thrilled to welcome motivational speaker and author Luke Staton for an inspiring assembly this week. Known for his powerful storytelling, Luke spoke about the power of belief, resilience and following your dream.

This event was made possible thanks to the generous sponsorship of Tom Carter from Tom's Potatoes who bought each family a signed copy of Luke's book – we are so grateful to Tom for making this happen.
