Parking and Pick-Up Safety Reminder

To help keep our children and families safe when walking home and crossing roads, please remember our school parking guidance:

- Parents may park in the Village Hall and Church car parks.
- There is a cut-through from Rasen Road to Front Street, so if you need to park on Rasen Road, please use the straight park of the main street. This helps keep all bends clear and ensures good visibility for pedestrians and drivers.

- Staggered Pick-Up Times

Class 4: 3:05pm

Class 3: 3:10pm

Classes 1 & 2: 3:15pm

If you have children in more than one class, you may collect all of your children at the latest time.

Example: A parent with a child in Year 3 and Year 1 may collect both at 3:15pm.

These staggered collections significantly help to ease parking pressure.

Zig-Zag Lines

Please avoid parking on the zig-zag lines unless you have a specific agreement with school as part of an individual risk assessment.

Thank you for helping us keep our school community safe.

BE SEEN and Be Safe!

Who is feeling PROUD, this week?

Well-done Joey for achieving your swimming badge!

Remembrance Parade.

Emmeline and Felicity have been inspired by the Y2 maths work last week!

Well-done to Martin – he appeared in the Rasen Mail for his role in the Wow! Annie, your medals are a huge achievement – well done!

The boys worked hard to create a 1000 Cube during wet play with only a small number of connecting pieces – a great team effort!

The Year 5/6 Ambassadors organised a colouring competition for Children in Need – well done to Darcey for winning the 1st prize!
