Spring Term Newsletter 10

Friday 20th March 2026

There's something truly magical about sunny days on our school field. Today, the children transformed the space into their own world of adventure — from explorers on daring quests to storytellers creating wonderful new tales.

Outdoor play like this gives children the freedom to be creative, to dream big, and to express themselves in ways that only their imaginations can lead. Whether it's building, pretending, or simply enjoying nature, these moments are so important for their growth and happiness.

Egg-tastic time again

It really is hard to believe it, but Easter is almost upon us. This can only mean that our annual egg-tastic competition is back!

Entries can be brought into school between Monday 30th & Thursday 2nd April for the judging to take place on Thursday morning.

Good luck everyone!

Who is feeling 'PROUD' this week?

There is some amazing writing being written in Class 1 at the moment: Savanna has been writing beautiful independent writing in class and Bethan has been writing her own books at home! Keep it up girls, this is amazing.

Please keep sharing your children's proud moments for our weekly newsletter highlights!
