As always, we are incredibly proud of our Year 6 pupils and the positive attitude they have shown throughout SATs week. They have approached each day with determination, resilience, and maturity, giving their very best effort while supporting and encouraging one another along the way. Their hard work has truly shone through, and we have been especially impressed by the calm, confident, and sensible manner in which they have tackled each challenge. Well done, Year 6 — you have been a credit to yourselves and to Tealby school! Huge thanks to our Y6 parents for the yummy breakfasts and the PTFA for funding them.

Please could I thank the Year 6 parents for stepping in and helping provide the year 6 children a good feast of a breakfast each morning this week.

Also, Michelle wins the fruit kebabs this year!

Many thanks

Alice

(Previous co-chair PTFA)

Who is feeling 'PROUD' this week?

A huge well done to Freddie again this week. He achieved a 2nd place podium finish at the weekend alongside 'fastest lap'

Anyone who wishes to follow his Gokarting journey can do so through his parent managed Instagram account @freddiedrury55_racing FB account Freddie Drury Racing

Noah J created the most amazing Rainforest inspired homework this week — well done.

Well done to Charlotte for winning 1st and 2nd rosettes in Show-jumping.

Charlie and George visited a museum recently and saw lots of things from the Bronze which were learnt about in C3 before Easter

Please keep sharing your children's proud moments for our weekly newsletter highlights!
