1. A welcome from the Chair and Vice Chair.

2. Class 3 suggested that the House Points could to be announced at a regular time each week – how might we do this? Could they be announced in Singing Assembly? Year 6 would like to collect the results in a book. Discussions with Mrs Allan and to decide next meeting. Everybody agreed this action.

3. Amber Hallsworth in Class 1 asked the meeting if we could consider the RSPCA shoebox appeal. It couldn't be simpler to share a bit of Christmas Cheer with cats in RSPCA care this Christmas Time, just fill a shoebox with cat treats and toys or pouches of food tape it up and leave it in our food donation bins or visit us at one of our fundraising events and pass it on to our volunteers who will ensure the cats get their Christmas gifts.
   It was agreed that we would look into sharing the information with parents to encourage people to support the cause and advertise on the newsletter.

4. Class 2 have been discussing what e-safety is and that Lyla Osborne, Hugo Macbeth and Ronnie Alexander have been to two e-safety training workshops and they have a task to do with the whole school. They wanted to mention two things:

1) Don't give personal information over the internet.
2)Check the age restrictions on apps and games.

They are in the process of designing a game that children can play to learn how to stay safe on the internet. The will feedback next meeting on their progress.

5. The JOSOs (Junior Online Safety Officers) asked the meeting to consider what we could do to help keep everybody stay safe online. Suggestions:
   - Joe Rippin Y6 – Information Posters around the school and keep putting information on the newsletter.
   - Emma Bocquillon Y6 - Letters home to parents and Children
   - Nell Beechey-Staves Y2 – Continue to put information on the school website to help children and their parents.
   - Aliesha Wright Y5 – Create information videos and put them mon the website and show them to pupils in school at a special assembly.
   - Charis Allan Y6 – We could make more use of the parents' noticeboard on the playground.
   - Summer Knott Y5 – We could make PowerPoints about specific areas of e-safety.
   - The question was asked about what other schools are doing to get the message out and learn about e-safety. The JOSO's will ask other schools at their next meeting.

6. Alice in Y5 informed the meeting that one of the taps was not working in the girls' toilets – Mrs Haslam told the meeting they would be fixed next week.

7. Votes of Thanks:

   - Jess Robertson Y3 – Mr Brown for the exciting Volcano experiment.
   - Fleur Ruck Y1 - Coen, Tallulah, Obi, Daniel for playing games with her at Playtime.
   - Coen Ruck Y1 – Fleur, Myles, Daniel, Obi and Thomas for helping him when he needed help.
   - Joe Rippin Y6 – Sunnyside Farm Shop for letting us name their Ducks.
   - Hugo Macbeth Y4 – Mr Brown for exciting science and using the thermometers.
   - Daniel Hopkinson Y1 – Fleur and Coen for making him happy when he is sad.
   - Obi Lee Y2 – Thomas for playing exciting games with him.
