LS Lowry

Laurence Stephen Lowry was a northern artist famous for his oil paintings of industrial cityscapes. He was born on 1st November 1887 in Stretford, Lancashire.

When Lowry was a boy, his family moved from the green, leafy area of Rusholme to the more industrial area of Pendlebury in Greater Manchester. Lowry did not like the area at first but soon grew more interested in his surroundings, spending time sketching the factory chimneys and mills.
