Here's a little message from Heidi, who will be stepping down as parent governor. The governing body would like to take this opportunity to thank her for her dedication to the role.

"The decision to step down as Parent Governor was much harder than I anticipated, because being part of the Board of Governors at Tealby School has been such a unique and interesting experience. Being a Governor requires commitment and consistent input, to ensure the strength of the board and the vital supportive role it plays in the output of the school."

Who wouldn't want to help the school be the best version of itself that it can be for our children?

Unfortunately, my time is needed elsewhere, but I know first-hand that the board with its remaining governors, chaired by Rebecca, remains strong, focused and forward-thinking.

I'm a bit jealous of my replacement because I know they're going to have such an enjoyable and rich experience! I hope they enjoy asking the important questions, digging into key issues, and helping to keep Tealby School special for all the children and staff present and in the future."

Who is feeling proud this week?

Thea is so proud of her amazing homework about the Roman era. She included some fantastic facts and explained clearly to her class. Look at that beaming smile!

Noah used his History Knowledge to imagine what it was like to be a Roman Soldier. His diary entry was really powerful and included superb details. Well done!

Friday 8th March

This year for World Book Day you can come to school dressed as your favourite book character or come dressed ready for a bedtime story.

We would like to invite our families into school too to enjoy story time with the children – we can't wait to see your costumes!
Please join us from 2.15pm onwards

For Parents - New NSPCC Videos

The NSPCC have been uploading some new videos onto their YouTube channel over the last week. Although not strictly online safety related, there are topics such as dealing with bullying, understanding healthy relationships and consent amongst others. To see their latest videos you can click on the link

At Tealby School we value the relationships we have with our families and we work very hard to support you and the children in our care. However, we recognise that sometimes we might not get things right and as a parent you have the right to make a complaint.

This is our formal complaints policy – adopted from the Local Authority.

Snaccident

A very recent mash-up of 'snack' and 'accident', which means the unintended eating of a delicious snack.
